

Generally speaking, you aren't learning much when your mouth is moving

Thursday Before 21h
14 Village Place • Liberal, KS 67342-4242 • Monday - Saturday
9:00 AM - 5:00 PM • 620-233-4444 • www.ksli.com

3-vehicle crash injures 2

Semi, pickup and car collide

Page 3A

Volleyball pits going in at Leete Park

Work continues at Liberal's newest park

Man upset city cut his weeds

By JILL WARDEN
LIBERAL, Kan. — A man who says he was forced to cut his weeds because the city of Liberal cut them down is angry. He says the city is being unfair and that he has to pay for the weeds he cut himself. The man, who is not named, says he has been in Liberal for 15 years and that he has always kept his weeds cut. He says that the city cut his weeds down last week and that he has to pay for the weeds he cut himself. He says that he is angry because he has to pay for the weeds he cut himself and that he is not happy with the city's actions.

Good Sam to celebrate Founder's Day Tuesday

By JILL WARDEN
LIBERAL, Kan. — Good Samaritan Society is celebrating its 100th anniversary on Tuesday, September 24. The organization is a non-profit organization that provides care for the elderly, disabled, and homeless. It was founded in 1913 and has a long history of service to the community. The celebration will include a variety of events, including a luncheon and a concert. The organization is grateful for the support of the community and looks forward to continuing its work for many years to come.

Flu shots now available at county health department

By JILL WARDEN
LIBERAL, Kan. — The Liberal County Health Department is offering free flu shots to residents of Liberal. The shots are available at the health department, which is located at 1000 N. 1st St. The shots are available from September 24 to October 10. The health department is offering the shots to help prevent the spread of the flu virus. The shots are free of charge and are available to all residents of Liberal, regardless of age or health status. The health department is also offering information on other health services, including immunizations and health screenings.

99-year-old Iowa woman gets HS diploma

By JILL WARDEN
LIBERAL, Kan. — A 99-year-old woman from Iowa has received her high school diploma. The woman, who is not named, is the oldest person to ever receive a high school diploma in Iowa. She received the diploma from the Iowa State Board of Education. The woman has lived in Liberal for many years and is a member of the Liberal Senior Center. She is proud of her achievement and is grateful for the support of her family and friends. The Iowa State Board of Education is proud to recognize her for her perseverance and hard work.

Lawrence will limit city's ability to use drones

By JILL WARDEN
LIBERAL, Kan. — The City of Lawrence is facing a new challenge as it considers whether to use drones for law enforcement. The city is currently in the process of drafting a policy on the use of drones, but it is facing opposition from some residents. The residents are concerned about privacy and safety. They are worried that the city will use drones to monitor their activities and that this will lead to a loss of privacy. The city is trying to address these concerns by drafting a policy that limits the use of drones to law enforcement purposes only. The city is also trying to ensure that the drones are used in a way that is safe and that does not pose a risk to the public.

Fishing Derby

By JILL WARDEN
LIBERAL, Kan. — The Liberal Fishing Derby is taking place on Saturday, September 28. The derby is a fun and exciting event that attracts anglers from all over the area. The derby is held at the Liberal Reservoir and is open to all ages. The winner of the derby will receive a cash prize and a fishing license for the year. The derby is a great way to enjoy the outdoors and to support the local fishing industry. The Liberal Fishing Derby is a tradition that has been held for many years and is a popular event in the community.

LEADER & TIMES

WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 25, 2013
Your Daily News & Views for $27

BASEMENT

Master's Finishes • Fast
Crews Late on Friday & Saturday
Crews in and out in 48 hours
Call for a quote

Jean Schodorf to run for Secretary of State

By JILL WARDEN
LIBERAL, Kan. — Jean Schodorf is running for Secretary of State in the 2014 election. Schodorf is a former member of the Kansas House of Representatives and has a long history of public service. She is a member of the Republican Party and is running as an independent candidate. Schodorf is a strong advocate for education and economic development. She is committed to improving the lives of Kansans and is looking forward to serving the state as Secretary of State. Schodorf is currently running a campaign that focuses on education and economic development. She is holding town hall meetings and is reaching out to voters across the state. She is confident that she will win the election and is looking forward to serving the state.

Lawrence will limit city's ability to use drones

By JILL WARDEN
LIBERAL, Kan. — The City of Lawrence is facing a new challenge as it considers whether to use drones for law enforcement. The city is currently in the process of drafting a policy on the use of drones, but it is facing opposition from some residents. The residents are concerned about privacy and safety. They are worried that the city will use drones to monitor their activities and that this will lead to a loss of privacy. The city is trying to address these concerns by drafting a policy that limits the use of drones to law enforcement purposes only. The city is also trying to ensure that the drones are used in a way that is safe and that does not pose a risk to the public.