

Generally speaking, you aren't learning much when your mouth is moving

Thursday Before 21h
14 Village Place • Liberal, KS 67340-4240 • Monday - Saturday
9:00 AM - 5:00 PM • 620-233-4444 • www.ksli.com

3-vehicle crash injures 2

Semi, pickup and car collide

Page 3A

Volleyball pits going in at Leete Park

Work continues at Liberal's newest park

Man upset city cut his weeds

Lawrence

The City of Liberal Board of Commissioners announced a new ordinance Tuesday that will require city residents to cut their weeds. The ordinance is intended to improve the city's appearance and to reduce the risk of fire. The ordinance will require residents to cut their weeds to a maximum height of 4 feet. The ordinance will also require residents to cut their weeds at least once a month. The ordinance will take effect on October 1, 2013.

WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 25, 2013

LEADER & TIMES

Your Daily News & Views for $27

FISHING DERBY

Anglers host Saturday

Page 3A

Good Sam to celebrate Founder's Day Tuesday

The Good Samaritan Society

Liberal, Kan. Chapter, located at 1111 N. 1st St., will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the organization's founding on Tuesday, Sept. 24. The Good Samaritan Society is a non-profit organization that provides care for the elderly, disabled and those in need. The organization was founded in 1913 by a group of women who were concerned about the needs of the elderly. The organization has since grown to include a wide range of services, including nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and home care services. The organization is currently celebrating its 100th anniversary with a variety of events, including a luncheon on Tuesday, Sept. 24. The luncheon will be held at the Liberal Community Center and will feature a variety of entertainment and a raffle. The organization is also accepting donations for the luncheon. For more information, call 620-233-4444.

Jean Schodorf to run for Secretary of State

Lawrence

Liberal, Kan. resident Jean Schodorf announced Tuesday she will run for Secretary of State in the November 2014 election. Schodorf is a 52-year-old mother of three who has lived in Liberal for 25 years. She has a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of Kansas and has worked for several years in the insurance industry. Schodorf is currently a stay-at-home mom and is active in her community. She is a member of the Liberal Chamber of Commerce and the Liberal Kiwanis Club. Schodorf is running for Secretary of State because she believes that the position is one of the most important in the state and that she has the experience and skills to do the job. She is currently gathering signatures to get on the ballot. For more information, visit www.jeanschodorf.com.

Lawrence will limit city's ability to use drones

Lawrence, Kan. City Council has passed a resolution that will limit the city's ability to use drones. The resolution states that the city cannot use drones for surveillance or for any other purpose that would violate the privacy of citizens. The resolution also states that the city cannot use drones for law enforcement purposes. The resolution was passed by a 5-2 vote. The city council members who voted in favor of the resolution are Mayor Tom Lawrence, Councilman Steve Lawrence, Councilman Mike Lawrence, Councilman Bob Lawrence, and Councilman John Lawrence. The city council members who voted against the resolution are Councilman David Lawrence and Councilman Mark Lawrence. The resolution will take effect on October 1, 2013.

Flu shots now available at county health department

Lawrence

The Lawrence County Health Department is offering free flu shots to residents of Lawrence, Kan. The shots are available at the health department, located at 100 N. 1st St. The shots are available from September 24 to October 10. The shots are available to all residents of Lawrence, regardless of age. The shots are also available to non-residents of Lawrence for a fee. The health department is also offering free flu shots to residents of Lawrence who are 65 years of age or older. For more information, call 785-843-3333.

99-year-old Iowa woman gets HS diploma

Lawrence

A 99-year-old Iowa woman received her high school diploma Tuesday. The woman, who is from Lawrence, Kan., is the oldest person to ever receive a high school diploma in the state. She is currently living in Lawrence and is active in her community. She is a member of the Lawrence Senior Center and the Lawrence Kiwanis Club. She is also a member of the Lawrence Chamber of Commerce. She is currently celebrating her 99th birthday on September 25. For more information, visit www.ksli.com.

100% Recycled Paper • 22 Pages • Welcome to the new and improved L&T. When you can't get the printed version, go to www.ksli.com Liberal, Kansas