

Smiley does what it must, but does what it can, and you had best do what you can
Smiley Smiley BIRD - Home of the BIG WEEKEND!
A Village Plaza Co. Outlet, KS 620-226-4400 Member: Saturday
KCSO-TV 35.0000 MHz 107.9000 MHz 107.9000 MHz 107.9000 MHz

muppets take SMITHSONIAN
29 Jim Henson originals
"Belong to America." PAGE 3A

Parent questions why board not enforcing policy
By NICKI CLONING COLUMBIANA
A local parent, Melissa Robinson, says she is questioning the board of directors' decision to not enforce a policy that requires parents to provide proof of immunization for their children to attend school. Robinson says she has received several letters from the board asking for proof of immunization, but she has not received any from the board regarding the policy. Robinson says she is questioning the board's decision to not enforce the policy, and she is asking the board to clarify its position. Robinson says she is not sure why the board is not enforcing the policy, and she is asking the board to provide more information. Robinson says she is not sure why the board is not enforcing the policy, and she is asking the board to provide more information. Robinson says she is not sure why the board is not enforcing the policy, and she is asking the board to provide more information.

Top Scout to discuss Spanish Peaks fire in Liberal tonight
PAGE 5A

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 2013
Your daily news & more for 127 years

BASEMENT
Movie + Music + Fun
Come Late on Friday & Saturday
Special Events on Tuesday & Wednesday

Kan. Lt. gov.: New exchange not competitive enough
By KATHY HANSEN
WICHITA
The state's new exchange program for health care is not competitive enough, Kansas Lt. Gov. Matt Denno says. Denno says the program is not competitive enough to attract private insurers, and he is asking the state to make changes to the program. Denno says the program is not competitive enough to attract private insurers, and he is asking the state to make changes to the program. Denno says the program is not competitive enough to attract private insurers, and he is asking the state to make changes to the program.

Camera takes dramatic shot of eagle attack
By JEFFREY W. HANSEN
WICHITA
A camera mounted on a tree in the Smoky Mountains National Park captured a dramatic moment on Sept. 25 as a bald eagle attacked a young deer. The camera captured the eagle swooping down on the deer, which was standing in a clearing. The eagle was seen attacking the deer's neck, and the deer was seen running away. The camera captured the eagle attacking the deer's neck, and the deer was seen running away. The camera captured the eagle attacking the deer's neck, and the deer was seen running away.

Youth football coaches face $200 fine for running up the score
By JEFFREY W. HANSEN
WICHITA
Youth football coaches in the Smoky Mountains National Park are being fined for running up the score during games. The coaches are being fined for running up the score during games, and the fines are being levied by the park. The coaches are being fined for running up the score during games, and the fines are being levied by the park. The coaches are being fined for running up the score during games, and the fines are being levied by the park.