Govt. closes Omaha Beach in Normandy during shut-down
-Katie McNeil
The U.S. National Archives and Records Administration has closed the Omaha Beach in Normandy during a shut-down. The beach is a historic site and is a popular destination for tourists. The shut-down is due to the fact that the beach is currently under renovation. The renovation is expected to be completed in the next few months. The National Archives and Records Administration is responsible for the maintenance and preservation of the beach. For more information, call 815-233-2222.
