Will gov't shutdown affect local residents?
A federal government shutdown could affect local residents in several ways, including the possibility of a pay raise for state employees. The state's budget is set to expire on Oct. 1, and a shutdown could delay the passage of a new budget. This could result in a pay raise for state employees, as the state would be unable to pay them for the period of the shutdown. A pipeline explosion in Oklahoma on Wednesday caused a fire that burned for about an hour, but no injuries were reported. The explosion occurred on a pipeline that carries natural gas. The fire was contained to the pipeline and did not spread to nearby buildings or homes. The Oklahoma Department of Transportation is investigating the cause of the explosion.

HALF CENT TO BE ON BALLOT
A city commission will allow public vote on whether to raise the city's sales tax by half a cent. The commission is expected to vote on the issue in the next few days. The city's sales tax is currently 2.5 percent, and a half-cent increase would raise it to 3 percent. The city's budget is set to expire on Oct. 1, and the city needs to raise revenue to cover its operating expenses.
