

Thursday, October 10, 2013

Will gov't shutdown affect local residents?

By [Name] | [Date]

Local residents are bracing for a possible government shutdown. The federal government is expected to run out of money on Oct. 17, which could lead to a partial shutdown. This could affect federal employees and services, but local residents are generally not affected. However, some federal facilities and services may be impacted, such as national parks and federal courts.

No injuries in Okla. pipeline blast

By [Name] | [Date]

A pipeline explosion in Oklahoma on Wednesday resulted in no injuries. The blast occurred at a pipeline facility near [Location]. The cause of the explosion is still under investigation. The Oklahoma Department of Transportation is leading the investigation.

Obama Administration denies Mass to Catholics

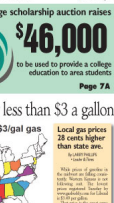

By [Name] | [Date]

The Obama Administration has denied a request from the Catholic Bishops of Massachusetts to allow the state to opt out of the Affordable Care Act's contraceptive mandate. The administration maintains that the mandate is a core part of the law and cannot be waived.

18 states now selling gas for less than $3 a gallon

By [Name] | [Date]

Eighteen states are now selling gasoline for less than $3 a gallon, according to a report by GasBuddy.com. This is a significant decrease from previous years and is attributed to a combination of factors, including a decline in oil prices and increased competition from foreign producers.

Police arrest 8 House members at immigration rally

By [Name] | [Date]

Eight members of the U.S. House of Representatives were arrested by police at an immigration rally in [Location]. The arrests occurred during a protest against the administration's immigration policies. The House members were charged with disorderly conduct and obstructing justice.

College scholarship auction raises $46,000

By [Name] | [Date]

A college scholarship auction raised $46,000 for the [Organization]. The auction featured a variety of items, including books, travel packages, and gift certificates. The proceeds will be used to provide financial aid to students in need.

Local gas prices 28 cents higher than state ave.

By [Name] | [Date]

Local gas prices are 28 cents higher than the state average, according to a report by GasBuddy.com. This is due to a combination of factors, including higher taxes and a lack of competition from other gas stations in the area.