Appeals court won't stop Keystone in Okla., Texas

APPEALS COURT WON'T STOP KEYSTONE IN OKLA., TEXAS
A federal appeals court has ruled that the federal government cannot force Oklahoma and Texas to stop the Keystone pipeline project. The court's decision is a major victory for the pipeline's supporters. The court ruled that the federal government's attempt to force the states to stop the pipeline was unconstitutional. The court's decision is based on the fact that the pipeline is a state-owned project. The court's decision is a major victory for the pipeline's supporters.
