Mental health care suffers drought season
Cuts cause 'unnecessary suffering, raises risk of crisis'
BY NICHOLE COHEN
A 10-year-old boy in a wheelchair was taken to the hospital last week after a seizure. The boy's mother, who has a history of mental health issues, says she was told by a doctor that her son's condition was "incurable" and that he would likely die. She says she was told that the boy's condition was "incurable" and that he would likely die. She says she was told that the boy's condition was "incurable" and that he would likely die.
