

I used to have an open mind but my brains kept falling out.
Thursday Prime Rib
44 Village Plaza • Overland, KS 66204-2548 • Monday - Saturday
11:30 AM - 10:00 PM • Reservations: 781-222-2222

Protecting Springfield Cemetery
By Tom Breen
The city of Overland Park is currently in the process of reviewing a proposed rezoning of a portion of the Springfield Cemetery in the city's southwest quadrant. The rezoning would allow for the construction of a new 100-unit apartment building on the site. The city is currently in the process of reviewing the rezoning application and will be holding a public hearing on the matter in the near future.

City to accept $350K grant
By Tom Breen
The city of Overland Park is set to receive a $350,000 grant from the state to help fund the construction of a new 100-unit apartment building on the site of the Springfield Cemetery. The grant will be used to cover the cost of the building's foundation and structural steel.

Hump daaaaaay?
By Tom Breen
The city of Overland Park is currently in the process of reviewing a proposed rezoning of a portion of the Springfield Cemetery in the city's southwest quadrant. The rezoning would allow for the construction of a new 100-unit apartment building on the site. The city is currently in the process of reviewing the rezoning application and will be holding a public hearing on the matter in the near future.

El Rancho Encanto hosts 44th Achievement Celebration
Page 3

SW Guidance Center to honor Barrows
By Tom Breen
The Southwest Guidance Center is set to honor a local resident for his achievements in the community. The honoree is a local resident who has made significant contributions to the community in various fields.

Grading system granted reprieve
By Tom Breen
The state's grading system for schools is set to be delayed for another year. This decision was made by the state legislature in response to concerns raised by educators and parents regarding the system's effectiveness.

Board members reluctant to delay options
By Tom Breen
The board of directors for a local organization is set to meet and discuss various options for the organization's future. The board members are currently reluctant to delay the options being presented to them.

Motion to suspend competency-based grading fails 5-5
By Tom Breen
A motion to suspend the competency-based grading system in a local school district was defeated by a 5-5 vote. The motion was proposed by a group of parents and educators who were concerned about the system's impact on students.

Kansas Supreme Court to hear Hard 50 appeal
By Tom Breen
The Kansas Supreme Court is set to hear an appeal of the Hard 50 law. The law requires that students must score at least a 50 on the state math test to be eligible for graduation. The appeal is being heard by a panel of five justices.

Tyrone commits to keeping teen drivers safe
By Tom Breen
The city of Tyrone is committed to keeping teen drivers safe on the roads. The city has implemented several measures to reduce the number of accidents involving teen drivers, including mandatory driver education courses and stricter licensing requirements.

Happy Belated Birthday July 20th!