

I used to have an open mind but my brains kept falling out.
Thursday Prime Rib
At Village Plaza • 602-432-4400 • Monday - Saturday
Book a table for your special occasion or enjoy a delicious meal in our restaurant or bar.

Protecting Springfield Cemetery
By Tom Breen
The city of Springfield is currently considering a plan to protect the historic Springfield Cemetery, which is located in the heart of the city. The plan includes the installation of a fence around the cemetery and the creation of a new park area. The city council will vote on the plan next month.

City to accept $350K grant
By Tom Breen
The city of Springfield is set to receive a $350,000 grant from the state to help fund the city's economic development efforts. The grant will be used to support a variety of projects, including the construction of new businesses and the creation of jobs.

Hump daaaaaay?
By Tom Breen
A group of humpback whales has been spotted in the waters off the coast of Springfield. The whales are known for their large, humped backs and are a popular sight for tourists. The group was seen on Oct. 15 and is expected to stay in the area for several weeks.

El Rancho Encuentro hosts 44th Achievement Celebration
Page 3

SW Guidance Center to honor Barrows
By Tom Breen
The Southwest Guidance Center is planning to honor a local resident for his achievements in the community. The resident has been recognized for his work in education and his commitment to the community.

Grading system granted reprieve
By Tom Breen
The state's grading system for schools has been granted a reprieve. The state board of education has decided to delay the implementation of the new system until next year. This decision was made after receiving feedback from school districts across the state.

Board members reluctant to delay options
By Tom Breen
The board of education is facing a difficult decision regarding the state's grading system. Board members are reluctant to delay the implementation of the new system, despite concerns from school districts. The board is expected to make a final decision in the coming weeks.

Motion to suspend competency-based grading fails 5-5
By Tom Breen
A motion to suspend the state's competency-based grading system was defeated in a 5-5 vote. The motion was introduced by a member of the board of education and was supported by several school districts. The vote was a tie, and the motion was not adopted.

Kansas Supreme Court to hear Hard 50 appeal
By Tom Breen
The Kansas Supreme Court is set to hear an appeal from the Hard 50 program. The program is a state-funded initiative that provides financial assistance to students who are struggling in school. The appeal is expected to be heard in the next few months.

Tyrone commits to keeping teen drivers safe
By Tom Breen
The city of Tyrone is committed to keeping teen drivers safe. The city council has passed a resolution that requires the city to provide safety training for teen drivers. The training will include topics such as defensive driving and the dangers of distracted driving.

Happy Belated Birthday July 20th!