

I used to have an open mind but my brains kept falling out.
Thursday Prime Rib
44 Village Plaza • Overland, KS 66204-2448 • Monday - Saturday
11:30 AM - 10:00 PM • Reservations: 781-222-2222

Protecting Springfield Cemetery
By Tom Breen
The city of Overland Park is currently in the process of reviewing a proposed rezoning of the Springfield Cemetery. The rezoning would allow for the construction of a new 100-unit apartment building on the site. The city is currently in the process of reviewing the rezoning application and will be holding a public hearing on the matter in the near future.

City to accept $350K grant
By Tom Breen
The city of Overland Park is set to accept a $350,000 grant from the Kansas Department of Transportation. The grant will be used to fund a project to improve the safety of the intersection of 117th Street and 117th Avenue.

Hump daaaaaay?
By Tom Breen
A group of humpback whales has been spotted in the waters off the coast of Overland Park. The whales are thought to be migrating from the North Atlantic to the South Atlantic.

El Rancho Encuentro hosts 44th Achievement Celebration
Page 3

SW Guidance Center to honor Barrows
By Tom Breen
The Southwest Guidance Center is set to honor a local resident for his achievements in the field of education.

Grading system granted reprieve
By Tom Breen
The Kansas State Board of Education has granted a reprieve to the current grading system used by schools in the state.

Board members reluctant to delay options
By Tom Breen
The board members of the Kansas State Board of Education are reluctant to delay the implementation of the current grading system.

Motion to suspend competency-based grading fails 5-5
By Tom Breen
A motion to suspend the current competency-based grading system was defeated by a 5-5 vote in the Kansas State Board of Education.

Kansas Supreme Court to hear Hard 50 appeal
By Tom Breen
The Kansas Supreme Court is set to hear an appeal of the Hard 50 law, which requires students to pass a 50% threshold on state tests.

Tyrone commits to keeping teen drivers safe
By Tom Breen
The city of Tyrone is committed to keeping teen drivers safe by implementing a series of safety measures.

Happy Belated Birthday July 20th!