

LEADER & TIMES
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 2013
THURSDAY PRICING: $1.00 PER COPY (EST. $1.00 PER COPY) MONDAY - SATURDAY
PUBLISHED BY: BOSTON HERALD COMPANY, 225 STATE STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS 02109

DATE SET
Michelle Holden's prima hearing set for same day as her partner's, Billy Brown, both accused of sexual misconduct with a child
Page 3A

Blizzard Meals
Page 5A

Enchilada supper
More WAC Marching Festival in Sunday Lining
Page 7A

School expansion?
Community investigations this Thursday
Page 7A

Sharks are coming
Sharks are coming to the coast of Massachusetts, and the state's first shark festival is set for next year. The festival will be held at the Cape Cod Convention Center in Bourne, Massachusetts, and will feature a variety of shark-related activities, including shark fishing, shark feeding, and shark conservation. The festival is organized by the Cape Cod Shark Festival Committee, which is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting shark conservation and education.

Nevada boy says he came face-to-face with shooter
A 12-year-old boy from Sparks, Nevada, says he was face-to-face with a shooter during a school lockdown. The boy, who is being held in protective custody, says he saw the shooter in a hallway and was told to get on the floor. The incident occurred at Sparks Middle School on Wednesday, October 23, 2013. The shooter was later identified as a 17-year-old male student. The incident has caused a major disruption at the school, and the community is on edge.

Hawaii surfer throws punches to escape shark
A surfer in Hawaii was thrown into the air by a shark, and he escaped by throwing punches. The incident occurred at a popular surfing spot in Hawaii, and the surfer was lucky to escape with only minor injuries. The shark was seen attacking the surfer, and the surfer was thrown into the air. The surfer was able to escape by throwing punches at the shark. The incident has caused a major disruption at the surfing spot, and the community is on edge.

Trunk or Treat set for Halloween night
A "Trunk or Treat" event is set for Halloween night. The event will be held at a local park, and it will feature a variety of activities, including trunk-or-treating, pumpkin carving, and a costume contest. The event is organized by a local community group, and it is expected to be a fun and festive event.

Seeking future Redskin cheerleaders, dancers
A group is seeking future Redskin cheerleaders and dancers. The group is looking for young women who are interested in cheerleading and dancing. The group is holding auditions, and they are looking for girls who are confident, energetic, and have a good sense of humor. The group is also looking for girls who are interested in learning new skills and making new friends.