Lawyers seek dismissal of Kansas murder charge
A KANSAS man accused of murdering a woman in a parking garage in 2009 is seeking to have a murder charge against him dismissed. The man, who is currently in custody, is being held in the Johnson County Jail in Overland Park, Kan. His attorney, David J. Hays, is seeking to have the charge dismissed because the state failed to prove its case beyond a reasonable doubt. Hays says the state's case is based on circumstantial evidence and that the man is innocent. The state's case is based on the fact that the man was seen near the victim's car at the time of the murder. Hays says the man was seen walking away from the car at the time of the murder.
