

I'm not a complete idiot, some parts are missing!
Stewie Smackin' PIZZA... Home of the BIG WICKED!
14 Village Drive • Liberal, KS 67042-4600 • Monday - Saturday
9:00 a.m. - 10:00 p.m. • 781-233-2222 • www.stewiepizza.com

Dunn dispels rumors college has bought Panhandle Eastern building
By Kelli Anderson
Dunn says the college has not bought the building. The building will be used for other purposes. The college has not bought the building. The building will be used for other purposes. The college has not bought the building. The building will be used for other purposes.

Where did Friday's meteor end up?
Page 3A

INTERNATIONAL FAIR
Sponsored by the Diversity Council and I-15
Page 2A

Tragic crash doesn't stop former soldier
Page 6A

LEADER & TIMES
WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 30, 2013
The daily news & more for I-27 area

Rep. Huelskamp to Democrats: End the racism
WASHINGTON — Rep. Louie Gohmert (R-Texas) has introduced legislation to end the federal government's support for the National Endowment for the Humanities, which has been criticized for its support of the humanities.

3 killed in dust storm crashes on I-10 in Arizona
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A dust storm on Interstate 10 in Arizona killed three people and injured several others Wednesday. The storm hit the highway around 10 a.m. and lasted for about an hour.

Man found in wrecked car in Wichita was shot
WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — A man found in a wrecked car on a highway in Wichita Wednesday was shot. The man was found in the driver's seat of a car that had rolled over. The man was shot in the back of the head.

Rule in Kansas on utility shutoffs taking effect
TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — A rule that prevents utility companies from shutting off power to people who cannot pay their bills is taking effect in Kansas. The rule is part of a new law that was passed by the state legislature.

Lawsuit filed over Prairie Village gun ordinance
PRairie Village, Kan. (AP) — A lawsuit has been filed over a new gun ordinance in Prairie Village. The ordinance bans the sale of assault weapons. The lawsuit was filed by a gun rights organization.