Sen. Moran sponsors bill to allow Kansans to keep their health care plans

Sen. Bill Moran (R-Kan.) has introduced a bill that would allow Kansans to keep their health care plans if they are currently covered by one. The bill, known as the "Keep Your Health Plan Act," would allow individuals who are currently covered by a health plan to continue that plan if they meet certain criteria. Moran says the bill is necessary to protect the health care choices of Kansans and to ensure that the state's health care system remains stable and sustainable.

Colorado's mixed tax votes leave future unclear
 by John C. Stapp
 Colorado voters have rejected a proposal to raise the state's sales tax to help pay for the state's growing infrastructure needs. The measure, known as Proposition 50, was defeated by a narrow margin. This result leaves the state's future tax revenue uncertain, as the state continues to face significant budget challenges.

SW Kansas Black Hills customers to benefit from pipeline purchase Customers in the Black Hills region of southwest Kansas will benefit from the purchase of a new pipeline. The pipeline, which is being purchased by a local utility company, will provide a more reliable and efficient source of water for the region. This purchase is expected to improve the water supply for agricultural and residential customers in the area.

National Beef closes temporarily for operational issues
 National Beef, a major supplier of beef to restaurants and food service providers, has announced that it will be closing temporarily due to operational issues. The company has not provided a specific date for when it will resume operations, but it has assured its customers that it is working to resolve the issues as quickly as possible.
