Sen. Moran sponsors bill to allow Kansans to keep their health care plans

Sen. Bill Moran has introduced a bill that would allow Kansans to keep their health care plans if they are currently covered under a self-insured plan. The bill, known as H.R. 1234, is part of a larger effort to reform the health care system. Moran, a Republican from Kansas, said the bill is necessary to protect the interests of Kansans who are currently covered under self-insured plans. He said the bill would allow these individuals to continue their current coverage without having to go through the process of obtaining a new policy. The bill is expected to be passed by the House of Representatives in the near future.

SW Kansas Black Hills customers to benefit from pipeline purchase

Black Hills Energy announced that it has purchased a pipeline that will benefit customers in SW Kansas. The pipeline, known as the Black Hills Pipeline, is a natural gas pipeline that runs through the Black Hills region of South Dakota. The purchase of the pipeline is expected to result in lower gas prices for customers in the region. Black Hills Energy said that the pipeline is one of the most efficient and reliable in the country. The purchase is part of a larger effort to improve the company's infrastructure and reduce costs for customers.

The company is committed to providing high-quality beef to its customers and is confident that it will be able to resume operations in the near future.

Colorado's mixed tax votes leave future unclear
 Colorado's voters have cast their ballots on a number of tax-related issues, leaving the future of the state's tax system unclear. The voters rejected a proposal to increase the state sales tax, but they did approve a proposal to increase the state income tax. The results of the vote are expected to have a significant impact on the state's budget and tax policy. The state government is expected to announce its response to the vote in the coming weeks.
