DOE hides vital info from audit of bankrupt Ecotality?
The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) is accused of hiding vital information from an audit of the bankrupt solar company Ecotality. The audit, conducted by the U.S. House of Representatives, found that DOE had withheld information about Ecotality's financial status and the extent of its debt to the federal government. The audit also found that DOE had provided misleading information to Congress about the company's operations and its relationship with the federal government.
