The secret, dirty cost of Obama's green power push
BY KIM CUNIFF FOR THE JOURNAL
LINCOLN, Neb. — The solar developer from the west of Lincoln said he got the go-ahead for his solar farm in Lincoln last year. But he never started.
The reason? He couldn't get the federal loan guarantee he needed to get started. He's now out of business.
It's just one of the many stories of the green energy boom and bust in the United States. Page 1B
