Thankful for family
Daughter's premature birth prompts deep gratitude

By KIMBERLY BROWN
The birth of a premature baby is a life-changing event for many parents. For the family of a young girl, the birth of their daughter was a miracle. The girl was born at 28 weeks gestation and weighed only 2 pounds. She spent several weeks in the neonatal intensive care unit (NICU) before being discharged. Her parents are grateful for the medical staff who cared for their daughter and for the support they received from family and friends.
