Downtown updates brand as 'The ROCK'
By MARK CHAMBERLAIN
The spirit of downtown's new name is being captured in a new brand. The new brand, 'The ROCK', is a nod to the city's history and its location on the rock of the harbor. The brand is a mix of old and new, and it is a reflection of the city's identity. The brand is a mix of old and new, and it is a reflection of the city's identity. POWER GRAB IN THE SENATE
Senate Democrats rewrite rules, erasing 235 years of filibuster rights of the minority
By MICHAEL WATSON
WASHINGTON — Senate Democrats on Thursday passed a sweeping new set of rules that would strip the Senate of its filibuster, a move that would allow the majority to pass legislation with a simple majority vote. The move is seen as a major power grab by the Democrats, who have a narrow majority in the Senate. The move is seen as a major power grab by the Democrats, who have a narrow majority in the Senate.

Groups want into suit over Kan., Ariz. voter laws
By MICHAEL WATSON
WASHINGTON — A coalition of civil liberties groups is suing the state of Kansas and the state of Arizona in federal court, claiming that the states' voter ID laws are unconstitutional. The groups are arguing that the laws are discriminatory and violate the Equal Protection Clause of the Constitution. Kan. killing draws attention to resource gap
By MICHAEL WATSON
WASHINGTON — The killing of a young boy in Kansas has drawn attention to the state's lack of resources for mental health care. The boy's mother had sought help for her son's mental health issues, but the state's mental health system was unable to provide the necessary care.
