

Letters: A tax on people who are bad at math.
Comments: Many people's Christmas math skills are tested by the IRS. The IRS is looking for people who are bad at math. The IRS is looking for people who are bad at math.

Meade County prepares for Christmas

Meade County is preparing for Christmas with a variety of events and activities. The county is looking forward to a festive season with many opportunities for families and friends to get together.

Money is blowin' in the wind

Wind energy is blowing in the wind, and Meade County is taking advantage of it. The county is investing in wind farms to generate clean energy and create jobs. The wind is blowing in the wind, and the county is taking advantage of it.

Friends of the Meade Library announces schedule of Christmas Home Tour
Christmas in Plains is scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 8.
The Friends of the Meade Library are excited to announce the schedule for the Christmas Home Tour. The tour will be held on Sunday, December 8th, and will feature a variety of homes for sale. The tour is a great opportunity for buyers and sellers to see homes in the area.

BIG WEEKEND
From high school playoffs to college football and the NFL, this weekend has huge Page 7A

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 2013
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & more for 127 years Page 6A

Country singer dies in bar shooting
A country singer has died in a bar shooting. The singer was shot in the chest and died shortly after. The shooting occurred in a bar in Meade County. The police are investigating the incident.

Citizenship law root of Kansas lawsuits

The citizenship law is the root of the lawsuits in Kansas. The law requires that citizens be born in the United States. The lawsuits are challenging the law and arguing that it is unconstitutional. The courts are currently reviewing the cases.

Australians set world record for Christmas lights

A group of Australians has set a world record for the most Christmas lights. They displayed over 10 million lights in a town square. The record is a testament to the community's spirit and creativity. The lights were on for several days and attracted many visitors.

Kan. groups seek repeal of mortgage fee
Several groups in Kansas are seeking the repeal of a mortgage fee. The fee is a small amount but adds up for many homeowners. The groups are arguing that the fee is unfair and should be eliminated. They are working with lawmakers to get the fee repealed.