Emphasize safety when decorating for the holidays

With the holidays just around the corner, it's time to start decorating for the season. But with the holidays come the risks of injury from decorating. The National Safety Council reports that each year, more than 10 million people are injured while decorating for the holidays. The most common injuries are falls from ladders, cuts from sharp objects and burns from candles.

Potted Christmas trees produce holiday cheer all year long

Christmas trees are a staple of the holiday season, and potted trees are a popular choice for those who want to keep their tree all year long. Potted trees are available in a variety of sizes and styles, and they can be decorated with lights and ornaments. They are also a great option for those who want to save money on a new tree each year.
