

TASTE OF CHINA
LUNCH $6.99 • DINNER $12.99
10% OFF

CELEBRATE ALL WINTERWAYS

Seward County Historical Society will host Christmas Open House
The Society will host a Christmas Open House at the Seward County Historical Society building. The event will feature a variety of activities, including a tour of the building, a presentation on the history of the building, and a Christmas dinner. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, visit www.sewardcountyhistoricalsociety.com.

HAY RIDES
Part of Parks and Recreation Christmas activities. Join us for a hay ride through the fields. The ride will be led by a local farmer and will include a presentation on the history of hay. The ride is free and open to the public. For more information, visit www.sewardcountyhistoricalsociety.com.

Who owns shooting range? According to 1994 deed, county owns gun range
A lawsuit filed by a private shooting range against Seward County has been dismissed. The court ruled that the county owns the range based on a deed from 1994. The lawsuit was filed by the range's owners, who claimed that the county had taken over the range without their consent. The court's decision is a victory for the county and its taxpayers.

Community speaks loud, clear
A new high school building, keep two middle-school model. The community has spoken out in support of a new high school building and against a middle-school model. The community has held several public hearings and has expressed its strong opposition to the middle-school model. The school board has taken the community's input into account and has decided to build a new high school building.

Some Kan. lawmakers to fight wind power incentives
Some Kansas lawmakers are looking to repeal incentives for wind power. The incentives have been a major factor in the growth of the wind power industry in the state. However, some lawmakers believe that the incentives are no longer justified and are looking to repeal them. The industry has expressed its opposition to the repeal and has argued that the incentives are necessary for the industry to remain competitive.

Judge to hear arguments in voter citizenship suit
A judge will hear arguments in a lawsuit challenging voter citizenship requirements. The lawsuit was filed by a group of voters who claim that the requirements are unconstitutional. The judge will hear arguments from both sides and will issue a decision on the matter. The case is expected to be heard in the near future.

L&T now accepting Dear Santa letters
L&T is now accepting Dear Santa letters. The letters will be read by Santa Claus and the winners will receive prizes. The letters should be addressed to Santa Claus and should be submitted by the deadline. For more information, visit www.landt.com.