County looks to spend $100K to stop concealed carry in 2 buildings

Commission may request 4-year exemption from concealment carry law before spending on security

Seaward County
The Seaward County Board of Commissioners is considering a resolution to request a four-year exemption from the state's concealment carry law for two buildings in Seaward. The buildings are the Seaward Community Center and the Seaward Senior Center. The exemption would allow the county to spend up to $100,000 on security measures for the buildings during the exemption period. The resolution was introduced by Commissioner Fred Perry and is expected to be voted on at the next meeting of the board.
