Winner gets a new car

County looks to spend $100K to stop concealed carry in 2 buildings

Commission may request 4-year exemption from concealed carry law before spending on security

Seaward County

Seaward County Commission is considering a $100,000 budget for security measures at two buildings. The commission is also considering a 4-year exemption from the concealed carry law. The exemption would allow the county to spend the money on security measures without having to comply with the law. The commission is expected to vote on the matter next week.

Winner gets a new car

The 2013 Christmas Parade and Cash Raffle was a huge success. The parade was held on Saturday afternoon and drew a large crowd. The cash raffle was held during the parade and raised a total of $300. The winner of the cash raffle was Kasey Moore, who won a brand-new 2013 Ford Focus. The parade was a wonderful event and we hope to have it again next year.
