

Semi-auto collision sends Meade man to hospital

By Jeff Hertzberg
A 40-year-old man from Meade was hospitalized after a semi-truck collision with his car on Interstate 25 on Monday. The driver of the semi-truck was not injured. The collision occurred at approximately 10:30 a.m. near the intersection of I-25 and 10th Street. The man was taken to a local hospital and is expected to be discharged within a few days.

County opens all buildings to concealed carry, with 2 exceptions

By Jeff Hertzberg
County commissioners have approved a resolution that would allow concealed carry in all public buildings, with two exceptions: schools and government buildings. The resolution was passed by a 4-2 vote. The exceptions are based on public safety concerns. The resolution will take effect on January 1, 2014.

PANCAKES WITH SANTA

By Jeff Hertzberg
A community event titled 'Pancakes with Santa' was held at a local restaurant on Monday. Santa Claus, dressed in his traditional red and white suit, was the guest of honor. He was seen eating pancakes and interacting with the children in attendance. The event was a success and raised funds for a local charity.

City closes shooting range for 'safety' reasons

By Jeff Hertzberg
The City of Meade has closed its shooting range for safety reasons. The range, located on the outskirts of town, was found to be in violation of local safety regulations. The city is currently working with the state to find a new location for the range. The closure is effective immediately.

L&T now accepting 'Dear Santa' letters

By Jeff Hertzberg
L&T is now accepting 'Dear Santa' letters from children in the Meade area. The letters are being collected for Santa Claus to read and respond to. The collection period runs from now until the end of the year. Letters should be addressed to Santa Claus, P.O. Box 1234, Meade, WY 83424.

Judge's word on NSA program won't be the last

By Jeff Hertzberg
A federal judge's ruling that the NSA's bulk collection program is unconstitutional is not the final word on the matter. The government has filed an appeal with the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. The case is expected to be heard in the coming months. The ruling has caused significant controversy and debate over national security and privacy rights.

Fla. burglar swallows 2 necklaces

By Jeff Hertzberg
A burglar in Florida was arrested after swallowing two necklaces. The burglar, a 35-year-old man, was caught in a jewelry store. He had stolen two necklaces and, in a panic, swallowed them. The police were alerted and the man was taken to a hospital. The necklaces were recovered from his stomach. The man is facing charges of burglary and possession of stolen property.

Kan. Supreme Court to hear death penalty appeal

By Jeff Hertzberg
The Kansas Supreme Court will hear an appeal of a death sentence. The case involves a man who was convicted of a capital offense and sentenced to death. His lawyers have filed an appeal, arguing that the trial was unfair. The court will hear the appeal in the coming weeks. The case is expected to be a significant one for the state's legal system.

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 127 years
Please Print and Call 800-835-7443

100% Recycled Paper. We make to the news and improve L&T. When you can't get the printed version, go to www.leaderandtimes.com. Liberty, Kansas