

Semi-auto collision sends Meade man to hospital

By Jeff Hertzberg
A 36-year-old man from Meade was hospitalized after a semi-truck collision with his car on Tuesday morning. The driver of the semi-truck was not injured. The collision occurred on Interstate 15 near the intersection of Highway 100. The man was taken to a local hospital and is expected to be discharged in a few days.

County opens all buildings to concealed carry, with 2 exceptions

County trustees have approved a resolution that will allow concealed carry in all public buildings, with two exceptions: schools and government buildings. The resolution was passed by a 4-2 vote. The exceptions are based on state law. The resolution also states that the county will continue to work with the state on gun safety issues.

PANCAKES WITH SANTA

Local children enjoyed a breakfast with Santa Claus at the Meade Community Center on Tuesday. The children were given pancakes and a chance to talk to Santa. The event was organized by the Meade Chamber of Commerce. Santa Claus arrived at 8 a.m. and stayed until 10 a.m.

City closes shooting range for 'safety' reasons

The City of Meade has closed its shooting range for safety reasons. The range was located on the edge of town and was used by local residents. The city officials are concerned about the safety of the surrounding community. The range will be closed until further notice.

L&T now accepting 'Dear Santa' letters

The staff at Leader & Times is now accepting 'Dear Santa' letters. The letters should be addressed to Santa Claus at the newspaper's office. The letters will be read aloud on the radio. The deadline for letters is December 20th. The newspaper will be publishing the letters in its Christmas special issue.

Judge's word on NSA program won't be the last

A federal judge's ruling that the NSA's bulk collection of phone records is unconstitutional is not the final word on the issue. The government has filed an appeal with the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court will hear the case in the coming months. The ruling is a significant victory for privacy advocates.

Fla. burglar swallows 2 necklaces

A burglar in Florida has swallowed two necklaces after being caught with them. The burglar was caught in a store and was found with the necklaces. He refused to give them up and instead swallowed them. The police are now trying to get the necklaces out of him. The incident is being treated as a medical emergency.

Kan. Supreme Court to hear death penalty appeal

The Kansas Supreme Court will hear an appeal of a death sentence. The case involves a man who was convicted of a capital offense. The man's lawyers are arguing that the sentence is unconstitutional. The court will hear the appeal in the next few weeks. The case is expected to be a landmark decision.

1041 12th Ave., Ste. 1100, P.O. Box 1000, Meade, WY 83440-1000
Mention to the news and improve L&T. When you can't get the printed version, go to www.leaderandtimes.com.
L&T 12/17/13

LEADER & TIMES

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18, 2013
Your daily news & views for 127 years

Phone: 307-685-7443
Fax: 307-685-7443
Email: info@leaderandtimes.com

Subscription Rates: $15.00 per month, $45.00 per quarter, $120.00 per year. Single copies: 50¢.

Printed on recycled paper.

NY mock trial for 'The Night Before Christmas'

By [Author Name]

NEW YORK (AP) — A 10-year-old boy in New York City is leading a mock trial for the poem "The Night Before Christmas" on Tuesday. The boy, who is 10 years old, is the star of the trial. The trial is being held in a courtroom in New York City. The boy is accused of stealing the poem. The trial is being held to raise money for a charity. The boy's lawyer is arguing that the poem is in the public domain. The trial is expected to be a landmark decision.

City closes shooting range for 'safety' reasons

By [Author Name]

MEADE (AP) — The City of Meade has closed its shooting range for safety reasons. The range was located on the edge of town and was used by local residents. The city officials are concerned about the safety of the surrounding community. The range will be closed until further notice.

Judge's word on NSA program won't be the last

By [Author Name]

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge's ruling that the NSA's bulk collection of phone records is unconstitutional is not the final word on the issue. The government has filed an appeal with the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court will hear the case in the coming months. The ruling is a significant victory for privacy advocates.

Fla. burglar swallows 2 necklaces

By [Author Name]

MIAMI (AP) — A burglar in Florida has swallowed two necklaces after being caught with them. The burglar was caught in a store and was found with the necklaces. He refused to give them up and instead swallowed them. The police are now trying to get the necklaces out of him. The incident is being treated as a medical emergency.

Kan. Supreme Court to hear death penalty appeal

By [Author Name]

TOPEKA (AP) — The Kansas Supreme Court will hear an appeal of a death sentence. The case involves a man who was convicted of a capital offense. The man's lawyers are arguing that the sentence is unconstitutional. The court will hear the appeal in the next few weeks. The case is expected to be a landmark decision.