Vote's in the mail?
If Seward County has had a mail ballot, it was before my time, clerk says
SEWARD COUNTY — A Seward County clerk says that if the county has ever had a mail ballot, it was before his time. The clerk, who has worked for the county for many years, says that he has never seen a mail ballot. He says that the county has always used paper ballots. He says that the idea of mail ballots is a new one and that he is not sure if it will ever be implemented in the county.

Partisan budget agreement nears final passage
WASHINGTON — A bipartisan budget agreement is nearing final passage in the U.S. House of Representatives. The agreement, which was reached after several days of negotiations, is expected to be passed by the end of the week. The agreement includes provisions for spending cuts and tax increases. It is a significant step towards resolving the budget impasse that has been plaguing the country for several months.

'Dear Santa' letters due by noon Friday
WASHINGTON — The deadline for "Dear Santa" letters is noon on Friday. The letters are to be sent to Santa Claus at the North Pole. The letters are a fun way for children to tell Santa Claus what they want for Christmas. The letters are also a chance for children to tell Santa Claus how they are doing and how they are behaving. The letters are due by noon on Friday, so parents should make sure their children have time to write their letters.

N.D. to let man in same-sex marriage wed woman, too
WASHINGTON — North Dakota is set to allow a man in a same-sex marriage to marry a woman. This is a significant step towards equality in the state. The man, who is already married to another man, is allowed to marry a woman. This is a departure from the traditional definition of marriage as a union between a man and a woman. The state's decision is a reflection of its commitment to equality and the rights of all its citizens.
