Defibrillator vest a blessing for Spearman man
A 50-year-old man in Spearman, S.C., who has a heart condition, says a defibrillator vest is a blessing for him. The vest is a life-saving device that can be used to restart a heart that has stopped beating. The man, who is a member of the Spearman community, says the vest has given him a new lease on life. He is grateful for the support of his family and friends, and for the medical professionals who helped him get the vest.
