Headphones, speakers top gift lists
By JENNIFER CHAZKIN
@jchazkin

The odds of your parents or boss buying you headphones or speakers are high, says a new survey from the National Retail Federation. The survey shows that headphones and speakers are among the top gifts people plan to buy for loved ones this holiday season. Headphones are the top gift for 17 percent of respondents, while speakers are the top gift for 15 percent.

Christmas of '67

The older I get, the more ordinary Christmas seems. Maybe that's what it means to grow up — the glitter and the whimsy of something that was once magical and wild slowly fades. Or maybe it's because on Christmas will ever reach the highs and lows of the one I survived the year I turned 13.

That was the Christmas my dad quit. It was the Christmas I got my first kiss. It was the Christmas my mom died.

It was the Christmas I learned to drive. It was the Christmas I got my first job. It was the Christmas I got my first car. It was the Christmas I got my first love.

It was the Christmas I learned to cook. It was the Christmas I learned to dance. It was the Christmas I learned to love.

It was the Christmas I learned to live. It was the Christmas I learned to hope. It was the Christmas I learned to believe.

It was the Christmas I learned to be. It was the Christmas I learned to be me. It was the Christmas I learned to be happy.

It was the Christmas I learned to be. It was the Christmas I learned to be me. It was the Christmas I learned to be happy.
