Crowds relive Washington's 1776 river crossing

A holiday along the Neversink River on any day from 1776 to the year 2013 would be a celebration of the American Revolution. On Thursday, Dec. 26, the 1776 Living History Society of Washington County, Pa., celebrated the anniversary of the crossing of the river by the Continental Army. The event was held at the Washington County Courthouse in Washington, Pa., and was attended by about 100 people.
