Crowds relive Washington's 1776 river crossing

A holiday along the Neversink River on any day would be a special event, but this year's celebration was particularly special. On Saturday, Dec. 21, the 1776 Living History Society and the Washington County Historical Society presented a reenactment of the crossing of the river by the Continental Army in 1776. The event was held on the banks of the river in Washington, Pa. The reenactment was a great success and drew a large crowd of people. The event was held on the banks of the river in Washington, Pa.
