Lawyers: Pa. high paper to resume Redskins ban

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A federal judge's ruling that the National Football League's Redskins must change its name to Wampanoag has prompted a group of lawyers to sue the NFL to resume its ban on the team's name. The lawsuit, filed in federal court in Philadelphia, is the latest in a series of legal challenges to the team's name. The NFL has said it will not sue the team to change its name.
