

More boy, Trigger? No thanks. Boy, I'm stuffed!
Cubs' Matty Adams' surprise Christmas with Miqah, 9, sparks 'Mighty' night as he shares a meal. (Photo by AP/Wide World)

College names People's Choice Awards Lawyers: Pa. high paper to resume 'Redskins' ban

Manhunt intensifies for Mississippi bank robber suspected in cop's death

STILL MISSING! REWARDS $1,000 to find Sam Carl

MONDAY DECEMBER 30, 2013

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 127 years

LOOKING FOR A PET?

Man thought to be victim of serial killer found alive

Robert Hunter was last heard from in 1975, when he told his mother he was traveling from New York to California.

LOS ANGELES — It was believed that the victim of a notorious serial killer had been found, but a man who was last heard from in 1975 has been found alive.

Hunter, 40, was last seen in 1975 when he told his mother he was traveling from New York to California. He was last seen in 1975 when he told his mother he was traveling from New York to California.

Kismet home's decorations are 'TOPS'

The Kismet home that has captured the public imagination of the annual Christmas Lighting Contest... The home's decorations are 'TOPS'.

DOJ enters 'knockout game' fray with hate crime charge

The Justice Department has entered the "knockout game" fray with a hate crime charge against a man accused of attacking a woman in a bar.

The man, 28, was charged with first-degree murder, rape, and hate crime. The woman was injured and hospitalized.

Robert Hunter was last heard from in 1975, when he told his mother he was traveling from New York to California.