Sen. Moran calls on OSHA to stop unlawful regulation of family farms

By Tom Ichniowski
Lawrence, Kan. — Sen. Roy Blunt (R-Mo.) has introduced legislation to help family farms and ranches by stopping the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) from enforcing its regulations on small businesses. The legislation, the Small Business Protection Act, would require OSHA to provide a written explanation of why a regulation is necessary for a small business. It also would require OSHA to provide a written explanation of why a regulation is necessary for a small business. It also would require OSHA to provide a written explanation of why a regulation is necessary for a small business.

Gun from botched 'Fast and Furious' operation turns up after Mexican resort shootout

By Tom Ichniowski
Lawrence, Kan. — A gun that was part of a botched 'Fast and Furious' operation has turned up after a shootout at a Mexican resort. The gun, which was a semi-automatic rifle, was found in the aftermath of the shootout. The 'Fast and Furious' operation was a controversial program that allowed the sale of guns to unlicensed buyers in Mexico. The operation was intended to help track illegal guns, but it ended in a series of botched operations and shootouts.

Kan. Statehouse renovation nearly complete

By Tom Ichniowski
Lawrence, Kan. — The renovation of the Kansas Statehouse is nearly complete. The project, which has been underway for several years, is expected to be finished by the end of the year. The renovation includes the restoration of the building's historic architecture and the installation of modern amenities. The project has been a major undertaking for the state, and it is expected to significantly improve the appearance and functionality of the Statehouse.
