Sen. Moran calls on OSHA to stop unlawful regulation of family farms

By Tom Ichniowski
Lawrence, Kan. — Sen. Roy Blunt (R-Mo.) has introduced legislation to help family farms and ranches by stopping the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) from enforcing its regulations on small businesses. The legislation, the Small Business Protection Act, would require OSHA to provide a written explanation of why a regulation is necessary for a small business. The bill also would require OSHA to provide a written explanation of why a regulation is necessary for a small business.
