Sen. Moran calls on OSHA to stop unlawful regulation of family farms

WASHINGTON — U.S. Senator Tom Moran (R-Kan.) has called on the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) to stop what he says are unlawful regulations that threaten the viability of family farms. Moran says OSHA has been oversteering its authority by imposing rules that are not only unnecessary, but also costly and burdensome to family farms. He says OSHA has been imposing rules that are not only unnecessary, but also costly and burdensome to family farms.
