

Some people are only nice because it is illegal to shoot them.
Thursday Prime Rib
 at Village Plaza Liberal, KS 620-430-4160 Monday - Saturday
 BRASSerie 1800 WEST 39th STREET, ANNEKAKEE IS TAVERN, ANNEKAKEE

County names Linenbroker chair, Wettstein vice-chair
 By Alan Roth
 The Board of County Commissioners has named a Linenbroker as chair and Wettstein as vice-chair. The Board also named a new member to the Board. The Board also named a new member to the Board. The Board also named a new member to the Board. The Board also named a new member to the Board.

Pancake Day Talent Show prelims set for Feb. 1
 Area residents invited to enter
 Page 3

City mulls building zoning boards
 Alan Roth
 Liberal City Commissioners have a meeting Monday to discuss a proposal to create two zoning boards. The boards would be responsible for reviewing zoning applications and making recommendations to the city council.

Making the grade will change
 Alan Roth
 The Kansas State Board of Education has a meeting Monday to discuss changes to the state's standardized testing program. The board is expected to approve changes to the state's standardized testing program.

Rep. Petty appointed to Transportation and Public Safety Budget Committee
 Alan Roth
 Rep. Timothy Petty has been appointed to the Transportation and Public Safety Budget Committee. Petty will be working with other committee members to review transportation and public safety funding.

$50,000 reward yields no clues in missing boy case
 Alan Roth
 A $50,000 reward for information that leads to the identification and safe return of a missing boy has yielded no clues. The reward was offered by the boy's family and the police department.

The Photo shows in Kansas on Sunday night after a heavy snowfall. The temperature was in the single digits below zero. The photo shows a group of people standing in a field during winter.