

There's too much blood in my caffeine system. Thursday, January 15, 2014. The Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 67230 • (785) 843-1100. Website: www.kslbt.com

Gov. prepares to give State of State address
Gov. Sam Brownback is preparing to give the annual State of the State address to the Legislature on Tuesday. The address is expected to be held in the Senate Chamber at 10 a.m. The governor will discuss the state's economic recovery and his administration's priorities for the coming year.

City hears update on school expansion plans
The Board of Education heard an update on the city's school expansion plans during a meeting on Tuesday. The board will continue to review the plans and make recommendations to the city council.

Volunteer drivers are needed for veterans VA transportation
The American Legion is seeking volunteer drivers to provide transportation for veterans to VA appointments on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Drivers must have a valid driver's license and a reliable vehicle. Contact Carolyn Kingham at 806-316-7111 for information.

Topoka 17-year-old accused of planning school shooting
A 17-year-old student from Topoka is accused of planning a school shooting. The student is currently in custody and facing charges. The school district is reviewing the incident and implementing safety measures.

Guymon Relay For Life announces scheduled events
The Guymon Relay For Life team has announced the dates for their upcoming events. The events will be held on January 22nd and 23rd. The team is seeking volunteers and donors to support the cause.

Kansas board recommends individual study plans
The Kansas State Board of Education has recommended individual study plans for students. The board believes that personalized learning will improve student outcomes and allow for more effective use of classroom time.

Plains United Methodist Men announce Ground Hog Supper date
The Plains United Methodist Men are announcing the date for their annual Ground Hog Supper. The event will be held on January 20th. The supper is a popular community event that raises funds for the church.

Okla. gay marriage ban struck down; ruling on hold
A federal court has struck down the Oklahoma gay marriage ban. The ruling is currently on hold as the court considers the government's request for a stay. This decision is a significant development in the national debate on marriage equality.

