Judge believes local tax collector signed fraudulent tax returns
A local judge has ruled that a tax collector in the area signed fraudulent tax returns for several years. The judge's decision comes after a long legal battle between the collector and the IRS. The collector claims that he was forced to sign the returns by the IRS, but the judge believes that he signed them voluntarily. The judge's decision is a significant one, as it could set a precedent for other cases involving tax collectors and the IRS.

Bob Boxes are available locally
The local food bank is now offering Bob Boxes to the community. These boxes contain a variety of food items, including canned goods, pasta, and rice. They are designed to provide a week's worth of food for one person. The food bank is currently accepting donations for these boxes, and they are available for pickup at their location. For more information, visit their website.
