Judge believes local tax collector signed fraudulent tax returns
A local judge has ruled that a tax collector in Broward County signed fraudulent tax returns for several years. The judge's decision comes after a long legal battle between the collector and the county. The collector, who has since been removed from his position, had been accused of signing returns for thousands of taxpayers without their knowledge. The judge's ruling is a significant victory for the county and its taxpayers.

Bob Boxes are available locally
The Special Care Unit (SCU) is now offering the Bob Box program to local residents. The Bob Box is a collection of food and supplies that can be used to help care for a pet. The program is available to residents who are unable to care for their pet themselves. The Bob Box is a great way to help a pet in need and it is available locally.

Parent-teacher conferences set for Feb. 6, 7
The school district is holding parent-teacher conferences for the second semester. The conferences will be held on February 6 and 7. Parents are encouraged to attend these conferences to discuss their child's progress and to provide input on their child's education. The conferences will be held at various times throughout the day, so parents can choose a time that works best for them.

Liberal needs help with stray dog problem
A local liberal is struggling with a stray dog problem. The dog is a small, white, fluffy dog that has been seen in the area. The liberal is looking for help to identify the dog and to find its owner. The dog is friendly and seems to be well-cared for, but it is currently living on the streets. The liberal is hoping that someone will recognize the dog and come forward with information.

KSRA President to give talk on 2nd Amendment
The KSRA President will be giving a talk on the 2nd Amendment. The talk will be held at a local community center. The President will discuss the importance of the 2nd Amendment and how it relates to the rights of citizens. The talk is open to all and is a great opportunity for citizens to learn more about their rights and the role of the 2nd Amendment in our society.
