Judge believes local tax collector signed fraudulent tax returns
A judge has ruled that a local tax collector signed fraudulent tax returns for several years, according to a report from the local news outlet. The judge's decision was based on evidence that the collector had signed returns for thousands of taxpayers without their knowledge or consent. The collector, who has since been removed from his position, had been accused of signing returns for a period of several years. The judge's ruling is a significant finding in the ongoing case against the collector.

Bob Boxes are available locally
The Special Care Unit (SCU) is now offering the Bob Box to local residents. The Bob Box is a specially designed box that contains all the necessary supplies for a dog's care, including food, water, and bedding. The SCU is committed to providing high-quality care for all its residents, and the Bob Box is a key part of that commitment. The boxes are available for purchase at a special price, and are a great way to ensure that your dog has everything it needs to thrive.

Parent-teacher conferences set for Feb. 6, 7
The school district is announcing that parent-teacher conferences will be held on February 6 and 7. These conferences provide an opportunity for parents and teachers to discuss their child's progress and any concerns. The conferences will be held in a variety of formats, including in-person meetings and virtual sessions. Parents are encouraged to attend these conferences to ensure they are fully informed of their child's education.
