

Thursday Prime Rib
 The problem with the new goal is that there is no lifeguard.

Honoring SWMC Auxiliary Volunteers
 Page 4A

Lucky Seven
 Board presses bond proposal with 7-0 vote

A 15-million-dollar referendum to build an additional 15,000 beds in the University of Kansas Hospital has passed a preliminary referendum by a 7-0 vote.

House panel to review Kansas tracking industry
 Page 3A

GROUNDHOG SUPPER

Low Star Friends Church will host its 7th annual Groundhog Supper on Feb. 23, 2014.

Lt. governor's $500K loan to gov. not unusual

It's not unusual for a state lieutenant governor to borrow money from the state government, according to a former state treasurer.

Law affects those with insurance thru work too

The bill will affect those with health insurance through their employer.

Birders reach rarefied Kansas air
 TUESDAY JANUARY 21, 2014

One of the country's largest birding groups is focused on birding in the state capital.

One of the country's largest birding groups is focused on birding in the state capital.