Rep. Petty to co-sponsor transparency bill
Rep. Benjamin D. Petty, R-1st, announced today that he will co-sponsor a bill to increase transparency in government. The bill, known as the Transparency in Government Act, would require state agencies to publish their budgets and financial records online. Petty said the bill is important for ensuring that taxpayers can see how their money is being spent.

Ohio ex-con charged in fatal shooting of girl, 5
A 35-year-old man with a criminal record was charged with the murder of a 5-year-old girl in a shooting in Columbus, Ohio, on Monday. The man, identified as James Earl Ray, was arrested after a police officer spotted him near the scene. Ray is being held in the county jail and is facing charges of murder and carrying a concealed handgun.

State victories create dilemma for abortion foes
The recent victories in state legislatures have created a dilemma for abortion opponents. While they have won in several states, they have also lost in others, leading to a complex political landscape. Some opponents are now focusing on federal legislation, while others are looking for ways to challenge the state court decisions.
