Seward County United Way Celebration set for Jan. 30
The people who make up the United Way of Seward County are a diverse group of individuals who share a common goal: to help those in need. The celebration will be held on Thursday, Jan. 30, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Seward County Courthouse. The event will feature a variety of activities, including a silent auction, a raffle, and a live performance by the Seward County Community Choir. The choir is calling for community response to support their performance. For more information, visit www.sewardcounty.org.

County approves new hi-tech election poll pads
The Seward County Board of Commissioners has approved the purchase of new hi-tech election poll pads. The pads will be used for the 2014 general election. The pads are more secure and easier to use than the current pads. The purchase is part of a larger effort to modernize the county's election system. For more information, visit www.sewardcounty.org.

Rep. Petty to co-sponsor transparency bill
Rep. Matt Petty is set to co-sponsor a transparency bill. The bill would require government agencies to make their records more accessible to the public. This would include information about government spending and operations. The bill is part of a larger effort to increase government transparency and accountability. Ohio ex-con charged in fatal shooting of girl, 5
An Ohio ex-convict has been charged with the fatal shooting of a 5-year-old girl. The incident occurred in a residential neighborhood. The suspect is a 34-year-old man with a history of violence. He is currently being held in custody. The girl's family is grieving the loss of their child. The police are still investigating the case. For more information, visit www.cnn.com.

State victories create dilemma for abortion foes
Recent state victories in the fight against abortion have created a dilemma for abortion opponents. While some states have passed strict abortion laws, others have passed laws that are more lenient. This has created a patchwork of laws across the country. Abortion opponents are now faced with the decision of whether to continue to push for more restrictive laws or to focus on other areas of the fight. For more information, visit www.foxnews.com.
