County approves new hi-tech election poll pads
The Seward County Board of Commissioners approved the purchase of new hi-tech election poll pads for use in the 2014 general election. The pads will be used to record votes and will be more secure than the current pads. The pads will be purchased from the vendor, Election Systems & Software, for a total cost of $150,000. The pads will be used in all 10 precincts in Seward County.

Rep. Petty to co-sponsor transparency bill
Rep. Benjamin Petty announced today that he will be co-sponsoring a bill to increase transparency in government. The bill, H.R. 1234, would require federal agencies to publish information about their activities and decisions. Petty said that the bill is important because it will help the public understand how government works and make it easier to hold government officials accountable.

State victories create dilemma for abortion foes
State victories in the recent elections have created a dilemma for abortion opponents. While they have won in several states, they have also lost in others. This has led to a debate about whether to focus on winning more states or to focus on repealing existing laws. Some argue that winning more states is the best way to protect the right to life, while others argue that repealing existing laws is the best way to protect the right to life.
