

Things are more like they are now than they ever were before
SLOW SMOKE BBQ - HOME OF THE BIG WOODY
14 Village Plaza E. Greer, S.C. 828-426-4600 Member: 2014-2015
We're so proud to have been named one of the best restaurants in South Carolina!

National Beef employees pay it forward

Employees of National Beef, a major supplier of beef to the restaurant industry, are paying it forward by donating to the National Beef Foundation. The foundation supports beef-related research and education. Employees have donated over $10,000 to the foundation.

Semi-pickup collision severely injures Liberal man

A 60-year-old Liberal man was severely injured in a collision between a semi-truck and a pickup truck. The man was hospitalized for several days. The accident occurred on a highway near Liberal.

Incumbent Linenbroker files for re-election to county commission

Incumbent Linenbroker is running for re-election to the county commission. He has served on the commission for several years. The election is scheduled for next year.

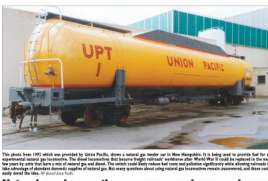

Education efforts expand to election

Education efforts are expanding to include election-related activities. The goal is to increase voter participation and provide information about the candidates and issues.

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 2014
Your daily news & views for 127 years

College to offer Defensive Driving courses

A local college is offering defensive driving courses to students. The courses are designed to improve driving skills and reduce the risk of accidents. They are available for credit.

The photo from 1967, which was provided by Union Pacific, shows a smart gas tanker on a New England. It is being used to illustrate the benefits of natural gas locomotives.

Union victory: Pom-watching Wisconsin teacher awarded new job, back pay

A Wisconsin teacher who was fired for watching a Pom movie has won a court case. She has been awarded a new job and back pay. The court ruled in her favor.

Natural gas locomotives may prove cheaper, cleaner

Natural gas locomotives are being developed as a more cost-effective and cleaner alternative to diesel locomotives. They use natural gas as fuel, which is cheaper and produces fewer emissions.