

Things are more like they are now than they ever were before
Grow Smokin' BIG! Home of the BIG WOODY!
• 4 Village Plaza • Liberty, N.C. 828-426-4600 • Monday - Saturday
• 10:00 AM - 5:00 PM • 100% BEEF • 100% PORK • 100% CHICKEN

National Beef employees pay it forward

The National Beef employees at the company's headquarters in Liberty, N.C., are paying it forward by donating to the American Red Cross. The employees, who work in various departments, are proud to be part of a company that gives back to the community.

Semi-pickup collision severely injures Liberal man

A Liberal man was severely injured in a collision between a semi-truck and a pickup truck. The accident occurred on a busy highway, and the driver of the pickup truck was taken to the hospital with serious injuries. The semi-truck driver was not injured.

Incumbent Linenbroker files for re-election to county commission

Incumbent Linenbroker is running for re-election to the county commission. He has a strong record of service and is committed to continuing to work for the best interests of the community. The election will be held in the coming months.

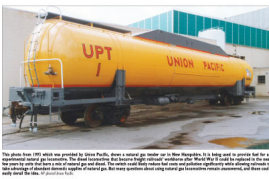

Education efforts expand to election

Education efforts are expanding to include election-related activities. The goal is to ensure that voters are well-informed and able to make decisions based on facts. This includes providing information about candidates and issues.

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 2014
Your daily news & views for 127 years

College to offer Defensive Driving courses

A local college is offering defensive driving courses to its students. These courses are designed to help drivers improve their skills and reduce the risk of accidents. The courses are available for a limited time.

The photo from 1957, which was provided by Union Pacific, shows a smart gas engine on a New England. It is being used to generate heat for an experimental natural gas locomotive. The photo is part of a collection of historical images related to the development of natural gas locomotives.

Union victory: Pom-watching Wisconsin teacher awarded new job, back pay

A Wisconsin teacher who was fired for watching a Pom movie has won a court victory. The court ruled in favor of the teacher, awarding her a new job and back pay. This is a significant win for the union.

Natural gas locomotives may prove cheaper, cleaner

Natural gas locomotives are being developed as a cleaner and cheaper alternative to diesel locomotives. They are expected to reduce emissions and lower operating costs. This technology could revolutionize the rail industry.