Kan. high court upholds Hugoton homicide verdict

CMT Announces Randy Hines, Lee Bryn, Susan Corbin, Hill, Briggs & The Builders to present out state-stadium lineup

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — The Kansas Supreme Court has upheld the homicide verdict against a man accused of shooting a woman in Hugoton in 2007.

The court's decision in State v. Hines is the latest in a series of rulings that have upheld the state's "stand-your-ground" law, which allows a person to use deadly force if they believe it is necessary to protect themselves or others.

Hines was charged with first-degree murder after shooting a woman in Hugoton in 2007. He was found guilty of second-degree murder and sentenced to life in prison.

The court's decision in Hines is a significant victory for the state's "stand-your-ground" law, which has been the subject of several lawsuits and legislative proposals.

Kicker Country Stampede reveals #BestLineUpEver

CMT Announces Randy Hines, Lee Bryn, Susan Corbin, Hill, Briggs & The Builders to present out state-stadium lineup

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — The Kicker Country Stampede is set to reveal the #BestLineUpEver during its annual event in Hugoton, Kan. on Saturday, Jan. 25.

The event, which is the largest of its kind in the world, will feature a variety of activities, including a parade, a rodeo, and a concert.

The #BestLineUpEver is a contest in which fans vote on their favorite lineups from the previous year. The winners will be announced during the event.

Gun fight: Smith & Wesson, Ruger quit California over stamping requirement

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Smith & Wesson and Ruger have quit California over a new stamping requirement for handguns.

The requirement, which is part of the state's "assault weapons" ban, requires manufacturers to stamp their handguns with the words "CALIFORNIA ASSAULT WEAPON" and a serial number.

Smith & Wesson and Ruger have announced that they will no longer sell their handguns in California because of the cost of complying with the requirement.
