Kan. high court upholds Hugoton homicide verdict

CMT Announces Randy Hines, Lee Bryn, Susan Corbin, Hill, Briggs & The Builders to present out state-stadium lineup

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — The Kansas Supreme Court has upheld the homicide verdict against a man accused of shooting a woman in Hugoton in 2007.

The court's decision in State v. Hines is the latest in a series of rulings that have upheld the state's "stand-your-ground" law, which allows a person to use deadly force if they believe it is necessary to protect themselves or others.

Hines, 37, was charged with first-degree murder after shooting a woman in Hugoton in 2007. He was found guilty of second-degree murder and sentenced to life in prison.

The court's decision in Hines is a significant victory for the state's "stand-your-ground" law, which has been the subject of several lawsuits and legislative proposals.

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — The Kicker Country Stampede, a major event in the city's entertainment calendar, has revealed its "Best Lineup Ever" for the upcoming season.

The lineup features a mix of established acts and emerging talent, including Randy Hines, Lee Bryn, Susan Corbin, Hill, Briggs & The Builders, and several other talented performers.

The event is set to take place at the Kicker Country Stampede venue, and is expected to draw a large crowd of fans.

Gun fight: Smith & Wesson, Ruger quit California over stamping requirement

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Two major gun manufacturers, Smith & Wesson and Ruger, have announced they are quitting California over a new stamping requirement.

The requirement, which is part of California's "Red Flag" law, requires gun manufacturers to stamp their products with the name of the manufacturer and the date of manufacture.

Smith & Wesson and Ruger have argued that the requirement is an unconstitutional infringement on their First Amendment rights.
